

James S. Jones
San Francisco, California, 94118
Phone 415-815-8812
jonesjamesstuart@gmail.com

WORK EXPERIENCE

- FORCE PROTECTION SPECIALIST, Academi 2014-2015
- Current Department of Defense Secret Clearance deployed in support of U.S. Department of Defense mission in Helmand Province, Afghanistan.
 - A member of quick reaction force (QRF) responsible for providing close protection of key military and civilian personnel by securing base airfield, ammunition supply facility, and the tactical operations center.
 - Responsible for biometric cataloging and base defense of U.S. Army installation Camp Dwyer at ECP/VCP; extensive training in escalation of force procedures and the M4/M9/GLOCK17/M240/M2 weapon systems.
 - Certified in the installation and proper use of the Common Remotely Operated Weapons System (CROWS XM153).
- SECURITY PATROL OFFICER, University of California Police Department 2013-2014
- Responsible for physical security of Department of Energy's Lawrence Berkeley Laboratory and satellite offices.
 - Certified in hazardous materials safety and protocol, closed circuit surveillance and corporate alarm systems.
 - Expected to be able to effectively relay pertinent information to local, county and federal law enforcement agencies.
- FORCE RECONNAISSANCE TEAM LEADER, U.S. Marine Corps 2012-2014
- Attended US Marine Corps Staff Non-commissioned Officer's Academy completing resident Sergeants Course.
 - Deployed in support of Operation Enduring Freedom with Special Marine Air Ground Task Force Africa 13-2
 - Selected for personal security detail for field grade officers ranging from Major to Brigadier General and for aircraft security (Raven) team. Served as team leader in Maritime Force Assistance Team.
 - Selected and assigned as lead firearms and water survival instructor; assistant instructor in Vessel Boarding, Search and Seizure (VBSS), amphibious reconnaissance, and ground patrolling while in Senegal and Cameroon.
- FORCE RECON ASSISTANT TEAM LEADER, U.S. Marine Corps 2010-2012
- Supervisor responsible for continuing training, welfare, and graded evaluation of 8 marines.
 - Completed the Marine Corps Institute's Distance Staff Non-Commissioned Officer's Course and Non-Commissioned Officer's Course (Distance Sergeant's Course).
 - Received certification from Tier One Group (T1G) in tactical combat casualty care (TCCC) with live tissue lab, foreign weapons instructor for the AK47/74, RPK/PKM, Draganov and RPG weapons systems.
 - Attended Preliminary Sniper School/Designated Marksman training and Non-lethal Weapons Implementation and Riot Control Course at Special Operations Training Group (SOTG-East).
- FORCE RECON RADIO TELEPHONE OPERATOR, U.S. Marine Corps 2008-2010
- Selected and assigned to Force Reconnaissance platoon upon graduating Basic Reconnaissance Course. Trained on UHF/VHF/HF and Satellite radio communications equipment. Trained in
 - Attended Survival Evasion Resistance Escape (SERE) Level C Course, Army Basic Airborne Course, and Small Boat Coxswain Course, and Marine Corps Instructor of Water Survival School.

SKILLS & CERTIFICATIONS

MILITARY

U.S. Marine Corps; Basic Reconnaissance Course (BRC)	2009
U.S. Navy; Survive, Evade, Resist, Escape (SERE) Level C Course	2009
U.S. Army; Basic Airborne Course (Static Line)	2010
U.S. Marine Corps; Instructor of Water Survival School (MCIWS)	2010
U.S. Marine Corps; Combat Marksmanship Instructor Course	2010
U.S. Marine Corps; Designated Marksman Course (Unit Level)	2011
U.S. Marine Corps; Non-Lethal Weapons Course	2012
Tier One Group (T1G); High Risk Protective Security Training Course	2012
Marine Corps Institute's Staff Non-Commissioned Officer's Coursework	2012
U.S. Marine Corps SNCO Academy; Resident Sergeants Course	2014

CIVILIAN

California Bureau of Security and Investigation Services (BSIS) 40-hour course	2014
To include: Powers of arrest, public relations, communication, trespass, search and seizure, observation and documentation, legal aspects, officer safety.	